1 John 4:19–5:3

19 We consistently love, because He first loved us.

20 If someone should make the statement, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, is not capable of loving God whom he has not seen.

21 And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should be loving his brother also.

1 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father (the One from whom life came) loves the child born of Him.

2 By this we know that we are loving the children of God, when we are loving God and are doing His commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.
