"The Conundrum of Good"

Romans 7:18-21; 8:1-5

Wednesday February 24, 2021

18 For I know that the good is not dwelling in me, that is, in my flesh; for to desire is present in me, but the producing of good is not.

19 For I do not do the good I desire; but that evil I do not desire,
his is what I am practicing.
20 But if what I do not desire, this (very thing) is what I am producing, I am no longer the one producing it, but sin which is dwelling in me.
21 Then, I discover the principle (the rule) for me, the one desiring to do good, namely, that evil is present in me, 8:1 Now, therefore, there is no condemnation to the ones in Christ
lesus.
2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has liberated you
From the law of the sin and of the death.
3 For the inability of the law, namely, in that it was weak through the flesh: God, having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful lesh and on behalf of sin, condemned the sin in the flesh.
in order that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
For those who are according to the flesh consistently think the hings of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit consistently think the things of the Spirit.
